FBI Profiling System

Serial Killers

Dr. Valarie J. Bell
“We serial killers are your sons, we are your husbands, we are everywhere. And there will be more of your children dead tomorrow.”

“You feel the last bit of breath leaving their body. You’re looking into their eyes. A person in that situation is God.”

~ Ted Bundy

What is a Serial Killer?

What do YOU think the definition is?
Definitions of a Serial Killer

- Someone who murders 2 or more victims with an emotional cooling off period between the homicides
Profiling Beginnings

- UNSUB
- “If you want to understand the artist you have to look at the painting”
- What took place?
- Why did it happen the way it did?
- Who could have committed this crime for these reasons?
Inside the Mind of a Killer

- They sense weakness and vulnerability
- Thrill of the hunt gets them going
- Behavior reflects personality
- “Homicidal triad”-cruelty to small animals, fire-setting and bedwetting beyond an appropriate age
- Three most common motives of serial killers and rapists are DOMINATION, MANIPULATION and CONTROL
- Serial killers are sexual predators
Inside the Mind...

- One of their main fantasy jobs is police officer
- Many are “police buffs”-they hang out at police bars and talk shop. They also like to find out about the investigation
- Triggering event-“stressor”-most common are losing job and losing wife/girlfriend
Inside the Mind...

- Most single important factor in the development of a serial killer is the role of fantasy
- Many fantasize about a relationship between sex and death (Ed Kemper, Jeff Dahmer)
- Behavior escalates from fantasy to reality, helped along by pornography and cruelty to animals and peers. Fantasy is in place long before murders start
The Role of Fantasy

- 82% of serial killers report daydreaming in their childhood accompanied by compulsive masturbation. If fantasies are violent, violence and sex become associated with one another.
- 71% report feeling isolated as children. Isolation encourages substitution of fantasy for human contact.
The Role of Fantasy: Test Runs

- Serial killers start out by giving the fantasy a test run
- This involves cruelty to animals and small children
- Stealing women’s underwear, exhibitionism, voyeurism, burglary and other minor offenses
Organized or Disorganized?

Organized
- Continual refinement of fantasy
- Improvement of details from one crime to the next
- Obsession with detail
- Planning of crime and disposal of body
- Socially competent
- Follows crime in the news

Disorganized
- Bodily mutilation
- Lack of preparation
- Body left in view
- Violence is sudden
- Often they are severely disturbed
- Some UNSUBS are mixed
M.O. vs Signature

Modus Operandi
- Learned behavior
- What the UNSUB does to commit the crime (shooting, stabbing)
- It can change

Signature
- What the UNSUB does to fulfill himself
- Does not change
- Expresses the UNSUB’s personality
- He NEEDS to do it
Deciphering Crime Scenes

- Blitz style attack or attack on small or physically challenged people means attacker has little confidence and self-esteem, not charming, asocial type.
- Sexual attacks on the elderly mean the person has little or no sexual experience.
Deciphering Crime Scenes

- Severe facial trauma/covering the face means the person may have known the victim or is trying to depersonalize her.
- Covering the entire body means the person feels bad about what he did.
- Multiple stab wounds mean a lot of anger and emotion (think about 30 stab wounds).
History of Serial Killing

- Serial killing may be a much older phenomenon than we realize
- Stories about witches, werewolves, vampires may have been created to explain atrocities committed by humans (Chikatilo)
- Beowulf-Grendel
History of Serial Killing

Gilles de Rais

- Lived during the 1400’s
- Bodyguard of Joan of Arc
- One of the wealthiest people in Europe
- Sexually molested and killed at least 140 and no more than 800 peasant boys
- Practiced necrophilia with dead boys
- Hanged and burned
