ON SUPREME COURT GERRYMANDERING CASE:

"The American people do not like gerrymandering. It leaves them feeling powerless and discouraged; that their votes are wasted and voices silenced. They see it rigging our political system to favor special interests...

The Supreme Court can clean up a cause of America’s crisis in confidence in our democracy, protect our elections from wildly partisan "bulk" gerrymandering, and return control of our elections to the people. We hope the Court will.

Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee"
