6	McAlester is best known for her book A Field Guide to American Houses c. 1984 with Lee McAlester, her second husband. The book was listed as one of the ten most outstanding reference books of the American Library Association in 1984. A fourth-generation Dallas resident, she was born in 1943 and passed away in 2020. Her father, Wallace Savage, was mayor of Dallas 1949 - 1951. Her mother was a preservationist who bought abandoned properties on Swiss Avenue, where the family lived, to protect them from being razed. McAlester helped found Preservation Dallas, instrumental in founding the first historic district of Dallas, Swiss Avenue, in 1973. She was a strong advocate for the conservation of the buildings in Fair Park, site of the Texas Centennial Exposition of 1936.
