

Local Anti-trafficking organizations:

Refuge for Women in North Texas: Refuge for Women is a non-profit, faith based organization providing specialized long-term care for women who have escaped human trafficking or sexual exploitation. With multiple locations across the U.S., Refuge for Women offers up to twelve months of safe housing, at no charge to the resident, with around the clock care as residents progress through evidence-based, trauma-informed programming.

Traffick 911, a nonprofit organization that provides direct services including a 24 hr crisis response, case management/advocacy, and mentorship to child sex trafficking victims for over 10 years

Unbound Fort Worth provides 24/7 crisis response and ongoing case management. Their advocates help meet survivors' immediate needs, offering support to families and caregivers and connecting survivors with aftercare programs. They also work with schools, youth organizations, and shelters to empower youth to stay safe from trafficking and exploitation. They coordinate citywide outreaches to increase awareness and present on human trafficking to community groups and organizations. Presentations available in Spanish.

4theOne is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the location and recovery of missing and exploited teens. It has a special team dedicated to identifying, investigating and reporting on active sex trafficking rings that are working in North Texas.

Arcadia is long-term restorative safe house for victims of sex trafficking.

Unlikely Heroes : Has opened 7 Homes in 4 Countries, Recovered 500+ Children, Transformed 640+ Adult Survivors Lives, and Educated 80,000+ People on preventing human trafficking.

Treasured Vessels Foundation is a residential community in North Texas operating as a clinically therapeutic aftercare program for survivors of domestic sex trafficking. The rehab program is 18 months long.

YouCanFreeUs Foundation is an international human rights organization that is fighting modern slavery around the world through advocacy, rescue and rehabilitation. Their prevention strategies include awareness campaigns through fashion, art and sports, and educational workshops in schools, corporations and prisons.

Poïema educates the public and raise awareness in order to prevent sexual abuse, sex trafficking, and other methods of sexual exploitation. They provide a safe place including trauma-informed care for those who have been trafficked and are on their journey from victim to survivor.

Pure Hope Foundation seeks to strengthen families and restore survivors of sex trafficking and to offer survivors who have been stabilized, a safe-house setting, continued healing, personal development, extended educational support and vocational skills to help them acquire skills that will allow for healthy, independent lives.

Bob's House of Hope is a long-term shelter for boys and men who are recovering from life in sex trafficking.

^21 is a nonprofit organization fueled by radical hope that human beings everywhere will be rescued from bondage and completely restored in 12 countries.

Resurrect Life, Inc. as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization committed to ending the horrific practice of human trafficking. While the organization has a pulse on trafficking around the globe, focus is primarily on the U.S., with a particular concentration on Texas